Excerpt: .still on their way, or sit down to rest until they had delivered their message and received an answer. Being commanded to go ou one of those errands, the young brave utters hah, signifying his assent to do all that is required of him. He then takes the brace of beads, turns suddenly about and proceeds on his wayDay after day, night after night, he journeys on till he reaches his destination and does the command of his Chief. I knew a young man by the name of John Loper. He was the best runner my father had, and was a man of great energy and activity. He travelled with us when we removed to the north towards the Ottawa River. In the dead of winter the track of his snow shoes might have been seen far and near. In the spring of the...
