The Good Steward: The Ernest C. Manning Story

By Brian Brennan

Fifth House Publishers. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Good Steward: The Ernest C. Manning Story, Brian Brennan, "The first book-length biography of Ernest Manning, the longest-serving premier of Alberta, who directed the transformation of the province from Depression-era poverty to modern, oil-based affluence." Brian Brennan traces the story of a poor farm boy from Saskatchewan with little formal education who rose to become one of the most successful politicians in Western Canadian history while simultaneously attaining long-lasting success as the director of "Canada's National Back to the Bible Hour" radio program. Drawing extensively from a series of oral-history interviews Manning did for the University of Alberta archives after he left provincial politics; from an unpublished memoir written by his wife Muriel; from interviews with family members, former colleagues and others; and from the various books and articles written about the rise and fall of the Social Credit in Alberta, Brennan tells how Manning: 1.) Left the farm as a teenager after hearing William Aberhart preaching the Bible on the radio and moved to Calgary with the intention of becoming a minister of the gospel. 2.) Became Aberhart's full-time assistant, helping run the Prophetic Bible Institute and participating in his radio...
