MIRACLE AT COFFEE CREEK

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Miracle at Coffee Creek is a story of suspense, intrigue, and romance, and most of all Faith in the word of God, rising from the ashes of a personal tragedy none have ever experienced. The story unfolds, from the start, with intrigue from a consuming catastrophic accident, which affected the lives of a small southern Arkansas community. Stepping innocently, into the very bowels of the unfolding catastrophe, Beverly McCoy is on a mission to thoroughly examine a little creek in Crossett, Arkansas known as Coffee Creek, which derived its name from the generations of pollutants discharged into it by a nearby mill. Beverly McCoy had suffered the loss of her mother, and her beloved husband and cherished young daughter, all within a few short weeks. Now, having pulled herself out of severe depression, she was finishing up her work on college dissertation for her Environmental PhD, and the field work brought her to Crossett. Enroute to Crossett, Arkansas, where she intended on pursuing her final research, Beverly stumbled onto a home in the woods which brought her, unwillingly, back to her loss in a surprising twist of fate. That fateful event was the start of a relationship which would slowly unfold, through a series of events, into a beautiful love story heartened by the word of God. Throughout the story, the unfolding events progress, in a relentless march, toward a human worldwide catastrophe as never seen before. Just one man rose up to eventually understand the scope of threat to the human race, and even he was to stand in awe of the Lords word in the end. Steve Watson stepped into the fray with a steadfast faith...
